BILLING RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

You are responsible for paying by the due date all charges on your billing statement. Tuition, fees and published due dates apply regardless of the method or medium of instruction or length of term, even if the method or medium of instruction or length of term is subject to reasonable modification at any point prior to or during the academic year.

If you have questions about any charge(s) on your billing statement, or believe you were charged in error, address all inquiries and disputes to your College regarding tuition and fee assessment, or the department that initiated the charge. Send your inquiry or dispute in writing, and include the following in your inquiry/dispute:

- Student name and UIN
- Dollar amount and date of charge(s)
- Detailed explanation of your question and/or reason for disputing the charge(s)

ACCOUNTS IN DELINQUENT STATUS

- Registration will be prohibited.

- The University will pursue collection action and may authorize legal action to affect the settlement of an account. You will be liable for all reasonable collection costs including attorney fees and other charges, which are necessary for the collection of a past due amount.

- The University will file a claim with IL Comptroller State Offset against any monies due from the State of Illinois, in compliance with Section 10.05 of the State Comptroller Act (15 ILCS 405/10.05)

PUBLIC UNIVERSITY TUITION STATEMENT ACT (PUBLIC ACT 110 ILCS 63/10)

For fiscal year 2022, the General Assembly and the Governor authorized the aggregate amount of $1.21 billion to be appropriated from the General Revenue Fund and the Education Assistance Fund for operation of the State's public universities. For fiscal year 2022, each resident undergraduate full-time public university student received an average tuition subsidy of $4,855 from the State of Illinois, which was applied to offset the full cost of instruction.

TERMS OF PAYMENT

Student account balances are expected to be paid in full by the due date stipulated on my monthly e-bill. Student account charges, in accordance with University of Illinois policy, apply to all customers billed through the University of Illinois online Billing system. Charges not paid in full by the due date will result in:

- A Past Due charge of $2.00 per month on transactions more than 60 days delinquent; and
- A Late Payment Charge of 1.5% or $1.00, whichever is greater, per month on the past due balance.

STUDENT LOAN RECIPIENTS

You have the right to cancel all or part of any student loan funds credited to your account. The Office of Student Financial Aid must be informed of your wish to reduce or cancel these loans within 14 days of receipt of this statement. These funds have been used to pay your current financial obligation to the University of Illinois. Please be aware that if you request a reduction or cancellation of these loans, you will be required to submit payment for any institutional charges previously paid by the loans. For more information, call:

UIC: 312-996-3126 UIS: 217-206-6724 UIUC: 217-333-0100

FINANCIAL AID REFUNDS

Financial aid in excess of the charges on your statement will be applied toward any other outstanding charges for the prior academic year, up to $200. If these financial aid funds, in addition to any payments made by you or on your behalf, exceed your University charges, University Bursar will process a refund to you via direct deposit or paper checks.
